 - a) Intentionally falling, immediately after delivery of the legitimate technique.
 - b) Committing an illegal act after delivery of the legitimate technique.
 - c) Use of any of the prohibited actions.

18.4 Scoring and Publication

In each round, 1-5 technical points per competitor can be awarded by each of the 5 sideline judges based on how the competitor displays the Wing Chun style. Points will be awarded based on the following criteria:

- 1 point – a single punch on valid area successfully
- 2 points – a combination of techniques e.g., Lap Da, Tan Da or Pak Da
- 3 points – falls on the platform or out of the platform

The competitor with the highest score in each round will be the winner. The competitor who wins 2 rounds will be the winner of the bout. If a competitor is knocked out or chooses not to continue, the remaining competitor will be the winner. Technically pushing the opponent out of the stage will win the round.

- If the challenger successfully lands a hit on a valid target area on the defender during a challenge, the challenger will be awarded 1 point and the defender will be awarded none. If the defender successfully defends the attacks of the challenger without being hit during a challenge, the defender will be awarded 1 point and the challenger will be awarded none.
- If there is an exchange or counter-attack that takes place between the competitors (meaning that both competitors land successful hits on valid target areas), both competitors will receive points. The sideline judges will award 3 points to the competitor who they feel dominated the overall exchange and 2 points to the competitor who doesn't.
- If the challenger attacks successfully with Wing Chun technique and style, and there is no defense from the defender, points will be awarded to the challenger according to each sideline judge's assessment.
- If the challenger attacks and there is successful defense with Wing Chun technique and style from the defender, points will be awarded to both competitors according to each sideline judge's assessment.

- If the defender counter-attacks the challenger successfully with Wing Chun technique and style, points will be awarded to the defender according to each sideline judge's assessment.

Valid points shall be immediately recorded.

18.5 Prohibited Acts

Prohibited target areas are:

- Absolutely no attack to the face/head
- the throat
- the neck
- the knees
- the groin area

Prohibited methods:

- 2) In the case of a tie score in the fourth round, the winner shall be the contestant awarded more points through the four rounds.

- 3) Decision of superiority shall be based on the initiative shown during the contest.

Article 19 Decision of Bout

- 1) Win by Referee stopping the contest
- 2) Win by score or superiority
- 3) Win by withdraw
- 4) Win by disqualification
- 5) Win by Referee's punitive declaration

Article 20 Knock Down/Out

- 1) When any part of the body other than the sole of the foot touches the floor due to the force of the opponent's delivered technique.
- 2) When a contestant is staggered showing no intention or ability to pursue the match.
- 3) When the Referee judges that the contest cannot continue as the result of any powerful technique having been delivered.

Article 21 Procedures in the Event of a Knock Down/Out

- 1) When a contestant is knocked down as the result of the opponent's legitimate attack, the Referee shall take the following measures:
 - a) The Referee shall keep the attacker away from the downed contestant by the declaration of "Break"
 - b) The Referee shall count aloud from "One" to "Ten" at one-second intervals towards the downed contestant, making hand signals indicating the passage of time.
 - c) In case the downed contestant stands up during the Referee's count and desires to continue the fight, the Referee shall continue the count up to "Eight" for recovery of the downed contestant. The Referee shall then determine if the contestant is recovered and, if so, continue the contest by declaration of "Continue".
 - d) When a contestant who has been knocked down cannot demonstrate the will to resume the fight by the count of "Ten", the Referee shall announce the other contestant winner by K.O.
 - e) The count shall be continued even after the end of the round or the expiration of the match time
 - f) In case both of the contestants are knocked down, the Referee shall continue counting as long as one of the contestants has not sufficiently recovered.
 - g) When both contestants fail to recover by the count of "Ten", the winner shall be decided upon the match score before the occurrence of the knock down.
 - h) When the Referee judges that a contestant is unable to continue, the Referee may decide the winner either without counting or during the counting.
- 2) Procedures to be followed after the contestant is knocked out
 - a) Any contestant suffering a knockout as the result of a blow to the head will not be allowed to compete for the next 30 days. Before entering a new contest after 30 days, the contestant must be examined by a medical doctor designated by the IWCSA, who must certify that the contestant is recovered and able to compete.

Article 22 Procedure for Suspending the Match

- 1) When a contest is to be stopped due to injury of one or both of the contestants, the Referee shall take the following measures;
 - a) The Referee shall suspend the contest by declaration of "Halt" and order the Time Keeper to suspend the timekeeping by announcing "Time"
 - b) The Referee shall allow the contestant to receive first aid within one minute.
 - c) The Referee shall declare the contestant who does not demonstrate the will to continue the contest after one minute, even in the case of slight injury, the loser.
 - d) In case the resumption of the contest is impossible after one minute, the contestant causing the injury by a prohibited act will be penalized by Deduction Penalty and shall be declared the loser.
 - e) In case both contestants are knocked down and are unable to continue the contest after one minute, the winner shall be decided upon points scored before the injuries occurred.
 - f) When it is judged that a contestant's health is at risk due to losing consciousness or falling in an apparently dangerous condition, the Referee shall suspend the contest immediately and order first aid to be administered. The Referee shall declare as loser, the contestant causing the injury if it is deemed to have resulted from a prohibited attack to be penalized by Deduction Penalty. Otherwise the Referee shall decide the winner on the basis of the score of the match before the suspension of the time.
